

LRC floor plan and tour

1. Entrance and main reception area of LRC

- Service Desk – for information and help
- Self-issue and return kiosks
- Catalogue access terminals
- Journals – current issues

2. Journals archive

- Rolling stack – contains the archive of the print journal collection

3. Quiet Study Rooms and book stock

- Quiet study rooms for individual study - thin client terminals or laptops can be used
- Book stock – Dewey nos. 615-999

4. Post Graduate Study Room

- Quiet study room for PG students only

5. Academic Reserve Room

- Short Loan Collection and DVD Film Collection
- Quiet study area with thin client terminals

6. Assistive Technology Room

- Special software, equipment and resources for students with special learning needs or disabilities Contact gharvie@qmu.ac.uk or lroberts@qmu.ac.uk for more information.

7. Bookable Group Study Rooms and Phone-Zone

- Group Study Rooms contain smart boards and laptop use is permitted – online booking of these rooms available
- Phone-Zone –additional group study, power points for laptop use and area where mobile phone use is permitted

8. Archive Room, Silent Study Room, IT Labs and book stock

- Archive Room – University archive material (access only on request)
- Silent Study Room – no technology allowed
- IT Lab with thin client terminals – can be used for quiet study when not timetabled for classes
- Book stock – Dewey nos. 000-614.9

