Knowledge Exchange and the use of licensed resources

Introduction
The electronic resources available through the LRC – e-journals, databases and e-books, are all purchased under licence, with agreements either directly with the publisher or the negotiating agent, e.g. JISC Collections.

The licenses are comprehensive legal documents whose terms include permissible use of the content and by whom. Standard terms from our most commonly used licence, the JISC Model Licence, can be found at the end of this paper.

As the university moves towards greater involvement in knowledge exchange activities, as noted in the University Strategic Plan (https://www.qmu.ac.uk/about-the-university/our-strategic-plan/), the use of content acquired under licence has come into question.

Licence agreements

The JISC Model Licence limits use of the licensed content to “Educational purposes” by “Authorised Users”.

“Commercial use” is not allowed, although a researcher funded by a commercial entity is allowed to use the material for research purposes.

Licence Definitions

Authorised User

means an individual who is authorised by the Institution to have access to its information services (whether on-site or off-site) via Secure Authentication and who is:

- a current student of the Institution (including undergraduates and postgraduates) or an alumni of the Institution;
- a member of staff of the Institution (whether permanent or temporary including retired members of staff and any teacher who teaches Authorised Users registered in the United Kingdom);
- a contractor of the Institution; or
- a Walk-in user
  - Walk-In Users are persons who are allowed by the Institution to access its information services from computer terminals or otherwise within the physical premises of the Institution. For the avoidance of doubt, Walk-In Users may be given access to the Licensed Material by any wireless Secure Network. Walk-In Users are not allowed off-site access to the Licensed Material

Educational Purposes

means use for the purpose of education, teaching, distance learning, private study and/or research.

Commercial use

means use for the purpose of monetary reward (whether by or for the Institution or an Authorised User) by means of the sale, resale, loan, transfer, hire or other form of exploitation of the Licensed Material. For the avoidance of doubt, neither recovery of direct cost by the Institution from Authorised Users, nor use by the Institution or Authorised Users of the Licensed Material in the course of research funded by a commercial organisation is deemed to constitute Commercial Use.
