12TH EUROPEAN MUSIC THERAPY CONFERENCE EDINBURGH 2022

EMTC 2022 - Your Conference Update #3

Welcome

PERFORMED BY MEMBERS OF THE CONFERENCE ORGANISING COMMITTEE

Thank you all for taking part in our monthly #Shoogle over last 12 months. For our final Shoogle, just ahead of the conference, the conference organising committee were asked what our conference theme, 'Music Therapy in progress, please disturb' meant to them. Click on the image to see the mixed media response.

Sonic Shoogling

There will be a space for live music performances throughout emtc2022. If you would like to be part of this, please email Luke Annesley (Luke.Annesley@uwe.ac.uk) with details about what you would like to play. It would be great to have as many people as possible performing throughout the conference.

EMTC Music Therapy Student Meeting

Monday 6th June 2022, 10.00 – 16.00

This will be the first (official) meeting of European music therapy students. It will take place as a hybrid meeting allowing both in-person and online participation. Maximum number of in-person participants: 150 participants

This meeting is organised by the European Music Therapy Confederation (EMTC)

Participation is free but registration is necessary. To register, please fill out our form-

Music in Edinburgh during EMTC

Edinburgh is a city with a music scene that doesn't stop. Here are a few events, sessions and festivals happening over the course of the conference:

Hidden Door Festival: 9th – 18th June, Old Royal High School, Calton Hill

Hidden Door open up forgotten urban spaces for the public to explore and discover incredible music, art, theatre, film, dance, spoken word, to reveal hidden parts of the city and showcase new and emerging artists, musicians, theatre and film makers.
